

CODE OF CONDUCT

All students have the right to feel safe and secure at school, and to be protected from harm. The following policy below outlines a code of conduct that is expected of students at Newbury Hall.

We have high expectations of the entire community at Newbury Hall. Mutual co-operation, respect for property, respect for our environment and above all, each other, are essential to our happiness and success.

We value ourselves and each other. This means that each of us will:

· Be Courteous

- .. in speech and conduct
- .. by showing respect for others
- .. by being well-behaved
- .. listen to and try hard to understand each other's point of view

· Be Considerate

- .. by being punctual
- .. by being attentive
- .. by being patient
- .. by caring for people and their property
- .. by being kind and helpful to others

· Be Prepared

- .. by being in the correct school uniform
- .. by having all the correct equipment
- .. by being ready to work

· Be Hard-working

- .. by starting work quickly
- .. by following instructions
- .. producing high quality work
- .. by listening carefully

· Be Tidy

- .. by taking trouble over your appearance
- .. by taking pride in your work
- .. by caring for your surroundings

· Be Safety-conscious

- .. by moving around the school calmly
- .. by observing all safety practices
- .. by using all equipment carefully

Certain forms of behaviour will not be tolerated under any circumstances:

BULLYING AND UNKIND TEASING, SWEARING, FIGHTING, STEALING, VANDALISM

Every student has a responsibility to report bullying behaviour if they think they or another student is being bullied.

BE PROUD TO BE PART OF OUR SCHOOL

Make friends with students of other nationalities and different cultural backgrounds, and understand the great benefits and pleasures you can gain by doing so.
